Financial aid and Scholarships.

Of the choices above, what is your third priority?

Career Planning.

The Emerging Scholars Program hosts an Early Orientation Kick-Off for a limited number of students. Over the course of 3 days, students get to know other ESP Students and Berea's campus through various team-building activities. Early Kick-Off is the Wednesday-Friday before the general first-year move-in on Saturday and would require you to move on campus early. This year's kick-off is scheduled for August 16th-18th. * If you are selected to participate, more information will be sent in a separate email.

Are you interested in participating in the annual ESP Kick-Off?

Yes

Are you participating in Athletics? (* Due to overlapping schedules, athletes will not be able to participate in ESP Early Kick-off)

No

Parent/Guardian Information

TRIO defines "First Generation" as a student whose parent/guardian has not completed a 4-year baccalaureate degree before the student's 18th birthday. According to this definition, are you a first-generation student?

Yes

Before coming to campus, with whome did you primarily reside?

My uncle and my mother.

Parent/Guardian Financial Information

Did your parent/guardian file 2022 taxes?

Yes

If your parent/guardian did file taxes in the year 2022, the household taxable income (line 11 of tax form 1040,1040-SR & 1040-NR) was

$24,000

If your parent/guardian has not or will not file, please specify:

What is your household size (the number of people primarily residing in your home)
